

Cookout: It's worth the wait

Patience is waiting until later for what you want now.

Talk About the Bible Story

Open the Bible together and read Proverbs 14:29 or watch the video together on the Parent Cue app.

Engagement Questions

- What do you think it means to “wait for the LORD,” and how do you do that?
- How does knowing waiting can make you wise help you make wiser choices?
- What is one way you can show patience this week?

Prayer

“Dear God, You showed Solomon that people who are patient show great understanding. This week, help us be patient and make wise choices. Help us wait well by taking deep breaths, helping and encouraging others, and above all, help us wait well by remembering what’s true. We love You and we pray these things in Jesus’ name. Amen.”

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, tell them about a time when you saw them make a wise choice.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone at the table answer this question: “What is something you had to wait for? How did it feel while you were waiting? How did it feel after it happened?”

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: “What games did you play at recess today?”

Bed Time

Pray for each other: “God, thank You that even when it seems like nothing is happening with things we are waiting on, You are teaching us things we need to know and preparing us for whatever is next.”

Prayer

"Dear God, thank You for the gift of patience through Your Holy Spirit. We know that when we choose to believe in You and follow You, we aren't left alone in our waiting. You give us a way to be strong and have hope while we wait. Please make it clear this week when we need to show patience. We love You and we pray these things in Jesus' name. Amen."

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, ask them how you can pray for them today.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone at the table answer this question: "What is the hardest thing about waiting?"

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "Tell me a funny story or joke."

Bed Time

Pray for each other: "God, when we're tired of waiting, it's easy to just rush ahead. But sometimes when we get impatient, we make bad choices. Help us to trust that You are working for our good—even while we're waiting."

ENGAGE IN EVERYDAY MOMENTS TOGETHER

Morning Time

As your kid starts their day, tell them something good and true about them.

Meal Time

At a meal this week, have everyone at the table answer this question: "What is something you are waiting on right now? What are some things that may make you afraid or unsure? What are some truths that prove that wrong?"

Drive Time

While on the go, ask your kid: "What is something true about you? What is something not true?" (Give an example: You love baseball. You hate candy.)

Bed Time

Pray for each other: "God, when we are waiting, it's easy to get frustrated, angry, scared, or impatient. Help us to remember that You are always working, and we can trust in You while we wait."
